TO HELL WITH THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

RICHARD J. SCUTARI

Many have written about the events that took place in Fort Smith. Some of the articles have been authored by our enemies. A few have been written by our friends. Unfortunately, many of our friends missed the mark in their haste to remain respectable, if not acceptable to the present criminal power structure.

The victory of the fourteen men who were charged with 17 counts was a statement to the courage and honor of those charged. During the long trial the men under attack went for the throat of their tormentors. Hour after hour of cross-examination directed at FBI agents, paid informants, and the like, was like a Blitzkrieg or Lightning war in nature.

One by one, valiant men verbally battered their tormentors, exposing the fraud, lies and treachery.

Gone was the whining lap dog approach that is displayed by kosher conservatives when they face such an ordeal.

This was a new day for a new Aryan Soldier that was capable of taking the battle from the streets into the very heartland of the beast, the Federal Court system.

Hundreds of agents with a multi-million dollar budget went into the ring like the proud peacocks they are, only to be bashed at every turn by White men of working class backgrounds. Frontline fighters who spit in the eye of the evil ones.

One reporter commented that the men handling their own defense out shined the professional attorneys. This trial was historical in nature and ranks with some of the greatest court struggles of our time. Every day ended with new history being made. These men did not fall apart, but pulled together. They asked for no deals and no quarter. This is the comradery that makes victory so sweet.

ericans during that sad time were content to whine about their rights. They insured the Iron Heel that they would never betray the system, no matter how long their teeth were being kicked by the Washington boot. The Sunshine Patriots abound.

Richard Butler, age 70, a man who has been attacked viciously by the Iron Heel and the Jew aliens. Butler went into the ring in Ft. Smith after being jailed and having a multiple heart bypass operation. Think of it; these men could be sitting around writing unending prose about imagined battles or talking endlessly about forgotten history. They could have played it safe like many men forty and fifty years their junior continue to do.

Louis Beam, age 41, that proud Vietnam Vet who knows what it is like to stare death in the face. Beam has been hounded from pillar to post by the Iron Heel. Being convicted of a government sponsored assassination, he went to Mexico with his young wife. Too cowardly to do it themselves, U.S. agents conned Mexican police into doing their dirty work, but the conspiracy failed and the Beam family were also forced into the farce trial at Ft. Smith.

Louis Beam called a string of witnesses and battered away at the enemy through cross-examination. Beam would have made Perry Mason envious. Another fighting man in the tradition of Stonewall Jackson and Leon Degralle. Every day before TV cameras going to and from the courtroom, Beam uttered his defiance. In chains he whistled the beautiful tune known to Americans as the "Panzer Song". We on the home front cheered his courage. When found innocent Beam didn't thank his tormentors, but carried his young wife, who had fainted, to the Confederate Monument. Upon reaching the Monument, Louis

Beam unfurled the Stars and Bars proudly hoisting it up the claiming, "To hell with the federal government", to a crowd of press and well-wishers.

Richard Scutari, age 40, a victim of the new star chamber RICO laws and a proud Order member, raked the agent witnesses over the coals. Even though many of these defendants have been sentenced to ridiculous sentences of several decades by Jew pressured courts of Seattle and Denver, they fought on. For such is what history is made of.

SHOULD ARYAN YOUTH DIE FOR THE SYSTEM?

The great Aryan Socialist writer George Bernard Shaw once said that Anglo Saxon man is long suffering, but once he has reached his breaking point, then he works himself up into a self-righteous frenzy and kills everything in sight!

We Aryans are a peace loving people; we will bend over backwards to avoid violent confrontation, but we can only bend back so far, until we must decide whether to break under the pressure or spring up violently like a catapult in the heat of battle.

This duality of the Aryan soul, which Shaw spoke of can be proven through a close study of history. It is also a historic fact that many dubious characters have exploited this self-righteous frenzy of our Aryan nature for their own selfish benefit.

Like a race of living geysers, our Folk are about to erupt. Our job, as Aryan fighters, is to guarantee that they erupt in the right direction and are not exploited by dubious characters.

Who are these dubious characters which we defend the Folk against?

They are the people who control every Western Nation, they control the news media, the Churches, the public schools and the entertainment industry. Many of them are Jews, some of them are darkies, but the OVERWHELMING majority of them are WHITE ARYANS who, either out of some twisted, bourgeois liberalism or for the mere love of money, have decided to destroy the White Working Class.

WHAT IS WAR?

WAR is an association dedicated to the well-being of White Americans. Since the super rich have long ago abandoned their less prosperous brothers and sisters, WAR champions the lower middle and poor White workers' cause. Obviously, Whites who do not feel their race is an important factor in the future of this nation would not be acceptable as associates.

WAR is a racial separatist group. We are not interested in the old time segregation, but complete racial separation. This is the ideal, of course. In the meantime, WAR feels our number one enemy now occupies the financial centers of the nation along with Washington, D.C. itself. The corporations conspire against our people and ship our means for livelihoods to Red China and other Third World nations.

WAR feels no obligation to send thousands of White military personnel to distant lands for the purpose of enforcing the corporations' desire for cheap labor or propping-up a friendly dictator.

WAR supports self-determination of other races and cultures. The interference and meddling in the affairs of other nations is not in the best interest of our White race. The United States is in the process of Balkanizing or dividing up; i.e. Hispanic control in the Southwest, Black dominance in the cities and areas of the South, etc. This means either a ruthless social struggle will erupt in a winner-take-all war, or negotiations between White separatists and other racial ethnic separatists for a solution to the future of the North American Continent. Those are the two options that we must face.

WAR opposes White abortion. 93% of all abortions since 1972 have been White. Sixty million Whites have been exterminated in a self-induced program of genocide against our own race. While it is obvious women have rights, the right to murder their own children is not acceptable. The economic pressures that drive men and women to abandon the family must cease.

WAR feels the courts of our land are not just, and primarily the rich get off while the poor fill our prisons. The White male seems to be the number one target from many sources including the alien controlled judicial system.

WAR is neither left nor right, liberal nor conservative, Republican nor Democrat. Our main concern is the well-being of our White race. We are not the enemy of other races unless other races join the plutocrats in a program of oppression against the White working people.

WAR will meet at any time with representatives of like minded racial groups. WAR is open to dialogue with non-White racial separatist groups. War encourages such dialogue while there is still time.

WAR struggles against the fat-cats, the power structure and the corruption of our own race. For, in reality, we are in a White civil war to wrest control from the economic determinists (who have allegiance only to the buck) and return the control of our racial and cultural determinists.

HENRY THOREAU ON REVOLUTION

"The mass of men serve the State thus, not as men mainly, but as machines, with their bodies. They are the standing army and the militia, gailers, constables, posse comitatus, etc. In most cases there is no free exercise whatever of the judgement or of the moral sense; but they put themselves on a level with wood and earth and stones; and wooden men perhaps be manufactured that will serve the purpose well. Such command no more respect than men of straw or a lump of dirt. They have the same sort of worth only as horses or dogs. Yet such as these even are commonly esteemed good citizens.

Others - as most legislators, politicians, lawyers, ministers, and officeholders - serve the State chiefly with their heads; and, as they rarely make any moral distinctions, they are as likely to serve the devil, without intending it, as God.

A very few, as heroes, patriots, martyrs, reformers in the great sense, and men, serve the State with their consciences also, and so necessarily resist it for the most part; and they are commonly treated as enemies by it.

All men recognize the right of revolution; that is, the right to refuse allegiance to, and resist, the government, when its tyranny or its inefficiency are great and unendurable. But almost all say that such is not the case now. But such was the case, they think, in the Revolution of '75.

The broadest and most prevalent error requires the most disinterested virtue to sustain it. The slight reproach to which the virtue of patriotism is common-

SEATTLE SAGA

By Tom Metzger

Seattle Sea-Tac Airport is a bit quiet at 3 AM as I roll into town on the Redeye from Southern California via the glitter capital, Las Vegas.

What do you do at Seattle at 3 AM? First, you catch up on all the great early morning headlines declaring thirteen defendants in the Ft. Smith, Arkansas great sedition trial not guilty, as they begrudgingly report it was an all White jury. Such a deal! All White juries many times have become the kiss of death.

So I catch a few winks and shave in the airport men's room. The few winks were shattered by the appearance of a negro male, his White wife and their three nigglet kids that, even though quite light in color, obviously had inherited the negroid habit of disturbing everyone within a half mile radius.

To escape this attack from the planet of the apes your editor jumps on the local greyline bus shuttle to downtown Seattle.

Oh yes, you guessed it, a Negroid female bus driver, who must have been trained by Demolition Derby experts, deposits your editor in cool downtown Seattle.

By this time I am still too early for a mini replay of the gloriously American Seattle Order trial. Only this time it is the long awaited appeal. Twenty-six months of waiting.

I sat in a local coffeeshop watching the Seattle inhabitants shove off to make a few bucks for the Jew boys department stores. Oh well, it is Friday and they are all mumbling, "Thank God it's Friday".

There are no throngs of reporters or FBI outside the Federal Court Building today. In fact the old building that was constructed during the "Rosenfelt" administration looks rather lonely now that the Order is not around Seattle. When I enter the federal building an elderly marshall looks bored and tired as he gives me a security check that the entire PLO could have beaten even with their head dress.

I move on up to the eighth floor to find room 800, where a telephonic appeal was being given for Randall Evans. There's only one catch, the doors are locked. In the clerk's office a U.S. Attorney is killing time, along with a defense attorney who complains he was at room 800 before the 8 AM start time, but the door was still locked. It's great if you're Phillip Marlow, detective. You just hold a glass to the door and listen to this public appeal process in full swing!

The U.S. Attorney is whining to a defense attorney about what happened in Ft. Smith unaware of who I am and that my three piece suit does not mean I'm Melvin Belli. The attorney ends the confab with the word that the U.S. Judge in Ft. Smith is nuts anyhow. I guess that makes all the pieces of the puzzle come together! When an Aryan gets off it must be because the judge is nuts!

I move to the hearing room as the troika of judges enter the courtroom. Two men and one woman. The female judge confused me somewhat. I couldn't figure if she should be home baking cookies or in a remake of "From Russia With Love".

Now the appeal. All the defense attorneys are ready to go, in a groveling sort of way. The polyester prosecution tries to hide the holes in their shoes while emitting the confidence of a typically fixed in-house gambling game in the back of some wharf house.

By now, I have been detected, my glorious cover blown, not by nifty police work, but from my signature in the log when I turned in my tape recorder downstairs. Suddenly, a junior G-man is a few rows behind me in a sparsely filled room. Always the same act; so predictable.

In turn each defense attorney does his thing for each defendant using perfect logic. Now comes the prosecution groaning on and on as geriatric judges attempt to keep their fat little eyelids open. They use flawless logic also. So what's the big problem? Well, for one, their premise is all screwed up. If anyone could ever be considered revolutionaries it would have to be Bob Mathews and his people. The government never charged them with sedition and treason. Everyone knows that all God's children love the government and would not think of making radical change! So, charges of sedition or treason to ZOG, JOG or whatever, was squashed in the beginning. These revolutionaries had to be made to look lowly and vile, greedy, with strictly lining their pockets in mind. But even that wouldn't do, since charges like that routinely are given light sentences and probation, especially if you are fortunate enough to come from the darker part of town.

So the government gang comes up with a lulu called RICO intended for old line organized crime syndicates that had been operating for decades. Charging the Mathews brigade with RICO is like forgetting Al Capone and indicting a family in Kentucky making shine. In fact, RICO is being used, like criminal syndicalism was years ago, to shut down politics of the deed.

Still digressing, we see after the fact that the Iron Heel charged 14 defendants in Ft. Smith with what, using logic, should have happened in Seattle. We never said they had brains, just our tax money; proving the whole operation must have emanated from that unindicted felon Edwin (help, I can't see my toes) Meese.

Carry on the fight to free our White people from the shackles of alien domination, even if you can only join our ranks in spirit. You can provide for this by bequest. The following are suggested forms of bequests which you may include in your Last Will and Testament:

1. I bequeath to Tom Metzger as Trustee for White Aryan Resistance P.O. Box 65, Fallbrook, Ca. 92028, USA, the sum of $.... for general purposes

2. I bequeath to Tom Metzger as Trustee for White Aryan Resistance, P.O. Box 65, Fallbrook, Ca. 92028 the following described property.....for general purposes.

As the hearing droned on, it was becoming more obvious that the same town that shot down White workers in 1917 for daring to strike for higher wages, hadn't changed a bit. The names have changed, but the system is the same old system just waiting to be trashed.

The judges will be out on the golf links

SKIN TRAITOR

BY

ELIZABETH SHERRY

I, as a skinhead girl, have become acquainted with many skinheads from various regions of this country and elsewhere. There is a major problem I have noticed; a portion of these people are not skinheads after all. Of course, all true skinheads are aware of the non-White loving baldies who call themselves skinheads, but there are also certain traitors who would swear 'till death that they are White warriors, yet their actions are truly contradictory. I am referring to so-called White power skinheads who display characteristics of non-White filth. These low-lives hide behind the White racist movement to further their own parasitic means. Lying, stealing, drug abusing, beating up women and girls, and associating with non-Whites are but a few of their disgusting traits.

These phony skin-heads have one common and outstanding flaw; they accept non-Whites as brothers or "bros". Although they will not associate with Blacks, to see one of these people with a Spick or a Jew is commonplace. A common excuse one of these "skinheads" may use for associating with a Jew is "he may be a Jew, but he will sieg heil his mother's grave". Such a justification for race-mixing is absurd. If these people can freely accept Spicks or Jews, is a Black any different? Traitors like these do not have the guts to make absolutely no racial exceptions.

I have met many of these people, heard their lies and wondered why they have gotten away with their actions for so long. Are they going unnoticed? They are not an isolated group, they exist in California, Texas, Florida, New York and many other places. These people are not strong, they lack the loyalty and common cause of true skinhead warriors, but they can make problems. The most detrimental point of the whole situation is the failure of the press to distinguish between them and us; we are viewed as one in the same, therefore the loyal skinheads are slagged off as degenerates. Another harmful aspect of these scum's existence is the impression they make upon the general public. Their disenchanting antics tend to scare off ordinary people, who otherwise may be interested in our cause. (The public does not make distinctions either.) So, keep watch and be wary, these traitors are of the vilest nature.

ly liable, the noble are most like to incur. Those who, while they disapprove of the character and measures of a government, yield to it their allegiance and support, are undoubtedly its most conscientious supporters, and so frequently the most serious obstacles to reform.

Some are petitioning the State to dissolve the Union, to disregard the requisitions of the President. Why do they not dissolve it themselves, the union between themselves and the State, and refuse to pay their quota into its treasury? Do not they stand in the same relation to the State, that the State does to the Union? And have not the same reasons prevented the State from resisting the Union, which have prevented them from resisting the State?

It is not my business to be petitioning the Governor or the Legislature any more than it is theirs to petition me; and if they should not hear my petition, what should I do then? But in this case the State has provided no way: its very Constitution is the evil. This may seem harsh and stubborn and unconciliatory; but it is to treat with the utmost kindness and consideration the only spirit that can appreciate or deserves it. So is all change for the better, like birth and death, which convulse the body."

ARYAN WEDDING

A new sight has appeared in the forests of California. An Aryan wedding at dawn; as the sun just breaks above the horizon. That ancient symbol of our race, whether it be cross-wheel, swastika, or other form, symbolizes the sun and creation.

Hundreds of youth have already participated in such gatherings. Young Aryans are turning to the old ways of the folk.

For a copy of the Aryan wedding ritual write to us.

THE OLD WAY

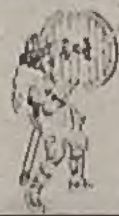

The Olden Ways ring true and make my heart glad,
So I write of Ways to do and have what the Norseman had!
Strive to live as our forefathers were - long ago,
Lusty Warrior Folk from the land of ice and snow!

See by the Eye of Odin - Strike as the Hammer of Thor,
Hack and Hew with the Hand of Tyr Feast of Frey's golden boar!
Master stolen wenches - and quaff the blood of Kvsir,
As we toast the Gods of Norsemen - The Mighty Aesir!

Live life on the edge until we are battle lain,
And carried on to Valhalla by the choosers of the slain!
But let the Valkyries not claim us until we have seen,
The world in submission, atour feet - and the slate of Vengeance wiped clean!

For our forefathers are unavenged of the traitors - Christian rused,
Who sold out our folk, and in blind greed and confusion - loosed!

The fouling civilized poison amongst the seed of our loved ones,
WE, the masters of the earth, WE the Warring Norsemen!

ARYAN SKIN HEADS

By

WYATT KALDENBERG

Miracles are very rare. They seldom come twice in a life time. The Race Movement was blessed with a miracle in the late '70s, but we let it slip between our fingers.

A second miracle has come to the Race Movement, and if we blow this miracle, we don't deserve to survive.

The first miracle was the Punk Rock Movement, and we blew that one forever.

I first came in contact with the punk scene in the early '80s, when I was a Committee member of the L.A. Odinist Fellowship, a White Racist pagan group.

One of the Fellowships' members, called Chicken Head, owned a punk night club, Gonzilla's, which was decorated with Nazi flags and painted with slogans like: THE HOLOCAUST IS B--- and SIX MILLION LIES!

The hottest bands in the punk scene played at Gonzilla's during the late '70s and early '80s. Bands like "X", "FEAR", "THE CIRCLE JERKS", "BLACK FLAG", "THE GERMS" and "THE DEAD KENNEDYS", all played at Gonzilla's and all claimed to be White Power.

The fat child actor who played Pugsly on the '60s TV show, "THE ADAMS' FAMILY", grew up and became a bouncer at Gonzilla's. Gonzilla's was a great recruiting ground for the young White Racists.

Ranger, who founded the infamous White Power street club, Fight for Freedom, and who "Rolling Stone Magazine" immortalized, got his start in White Revolution at Gonzilla's.

Once the chairman of the L.A. Odinist Fellowship went to a Fight for Freedom meeting that had 400 White Power punks who chanted: "Hail Odin, Heil Hitler, and White Power!" All of these kids were recruited from Gonzilla's. The Jews got hip to Gonzilla's and closed it down.

After Chicken Head lost his night club to the Jews, he began renting concert halls. I went to a "FEAR" concert he had in Hollywood, wore a White Racist T-shirt, and was surprised at how positive all the young kids responded to my shirt. The "VANDAL'S" bass player, source of female recruits.

The punk movement was a White Power movement, until, through our stupidity, we allowed the Jews to steal it from us and turn it into an anti-White movement.

This is how the Jews took punk from us: they blacklisted all night clubs that allowed pro-White punk bands to play; they forced the pigs to close pro-White night clubs like Gonzilla's; they offered "Nazi" punk bands record contracts, gigs, and to promote their bands if they would come out against White Pow-called the White Power punks a small, radical fringe that did not really represent the punk movement, even though the overwhelming majority of punks were White Power at the time. The Jews' tactics of promoting anti-White punk bands, blacklisting all pro-White punk bands, and creating the big lie that most punks are anti-White, caused the punk scene to slip between our fingers. The miracle of the punk rock scene is lost to us forever.

Music is one of the greatest propaganda tools around. You can influence more people with a song than you from the English National Front and about 90% of the skins are White Power.

The skinhead movement (or boot boys as some call themselves) is sweeping the nation and it is our greatest in road into Aryan youth.

John Metzger, head of the Aryan Youth Movement, told me that so far he has received over five hundred letters from pro-White kids from the skinhead appearance on the "Oprah" show and 40% of those letters are from young Aryan girls. This is something new to the White Racist Movement in America. For the first time, large amounts of teenage girls want to join the Race Movement. The skinhead movement is good for us.

But the universal Jew has already started using its tactics that it used to destroy the punk movement.

If you saw the "Oprah" show, the Jews had shipped in phoney Jew skinheads who proclaim the big lie that the anti-White "skins" are the only true skins and the pro-White skins are a tiny minority, even though 90% of all skinheads are White Power.

The Jews are blacklisting all true skinhead bands from playing in public. I was told that the great skinhead band, "White Pride", has disbanded because the Jews have kept them from playing concerts. Are we going to watch the kikes steal the skinhead movement from us too? Or are we going to get out there and find alternative sites for pro-White skin bands to play their music? If we are true White Revolutionaries, we will fight the Jews and promote pro-White bands. American racists must get their act together and support White Power music of all kinds.

If we are too stupid, too lazy, or too reactionary to help the skinhead bands in America, then we deserve to lose our war against the Alien Virus.

after his band finished playing, jumped off the stage and ran over to me and started shaking my hand for being a racist and asked me where he could get a White Racist shirt. After the concert I was brought up on stage to meet Lee Ving, who starred in the cult classic, "Decline of the West", played Raven in the movie, "Streets of Fire", was a seedy bartender in "Footloose" and a corrupt union leader on the TV show "Crime Story". Lee Ving told me that he collected White Racist interviews and was "...very much into the White Power thing!"

At the time, the punk rock scene was our one in road into the Aryan youth. Odinism doesn't have great appeal to women and the punk movement was about our only er Punk. A good example of this is the "Dead Kennedys". Jello, the band's lead singer, was the most outspoken "Nazi" in the Los Angeles punk music scene, but as soon as the Jews offered him a big record contract if he would only come out against the "Nazi" punks, Jello suddenly became one of the most "righteous gentiles" in Southern California and put out some of the most vile anti-White songs I ever heard, like their Jew theme song: "F--- Off, Nazi Punks!" The Jews dominate the music industry, and now they control the punk scene.

Once the Jews saw the danger in the punk movement, they, like they are now doing with the skin scene, invented anti-White punks and promoted them as the only true punks. They can a speech. All musicians play for at least one of these reasons: (1) money, (2) ego, and (3) a need to share their art.

There is no way we could ever compete with Jewish money, so any musicians who are in it for the money belong to the Jews.

However, the bands who were doing it for ego or a need to share their art, the Race Movement could have found places for pro-White punk bands to play when the Jews blacklisted them, but we did not and we lost the punk movement.

Maybe the gods felt sorry for us dumb goyim over how badly we screwed up the Nazi punk movement, and they are giving us a second chance with the skinhead movement.

The skinheads are a present given to us

(SYNOPSIS: A major economic depression struck the U.S. in 1873, triggered by a failed railroad takeover scheme and a "Panic" on Wall Street and in the major Banking houses. After three years of misery for white working people, the Railroad capitalists made massive wage cuts on railway workers. Strikes and bloody riots spread through Maryland, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky. Large-scale fighting saw hundreds of white men, women and children murdered by State troops and the Regular Armed Forces. On the 23rd and 24th of July 1877 fighting broke out in Chicago.)

Gunshops were plundered of 150 revolvers, 50 rifles, and a gross of brass knuckles. Strikers seized railway yards and derailed a passing train. Wed., July 25: all trades went out, including tanneries, stone-works, brick-yards, furniture factories, lumberyards, livery stables, distilleries. After police viciously clubbed a band of youths in the freight yards, an enraged mob of 20,000 attacked police. Three rioters were killed and nine wounded (the total was actually higher, but many riot casualties were carted away privately). Four police were wounded, one fatally. Strikers seized the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy R.R. roundhouse, extinguishing all engine fires. Police arrived, killing five. That night a mass WMP rally held at Market and Madison streets was attacked by police. Thursday, July 26th: the Illinois 2nd Regiment entered Chicago. Fifty separate mobs battled police and militia. In a running fight at the Halsted Street viaduct and railroad tracks below, six police were shot, eighteen rioters were killed and thirty-two wounded, and the city viaduct destroyed. Police raided a meeting of cabinet makers discussing the eight-hour day, killing one and beating the others. A riot of Bohemian (Czech) women stoned police; a fourteen year old girl was shot. Rioters swelled to 25,000. U.S. regulars and cavalry were pulled in from fighting Sioux and Cheyenne Indians. The city of Chicago was retaken for the Master Class, with a total of 30 killed and 100 wounded. One policeman died of wounds. Among those killed was a leader of the Workingmen's Party, Frank Norbeck. Another WMP leader, Nicholas Schilling, was wounded.

MARXISTS IN ST. LOUIS

In St. Louis, a General Strike was erratically led by an Executive Committee formed by a coalition of minor trade union officials and the Workingmen's Party. The WMP was dominated by Marxist - Communists, mostly German immigrants from the failed 1848-49 revolution in Germany and active in St. Louis since the start of the U.S. Civil War. (The German-Marxists had included several high ranking Union generals, radical and liberal Republican politicians, and occupation agents during the crushing of the popular Southern insurgency in rural Missouri). Several of the WMP leaders were former members of the International Workingmen's Association and one in St. Louis, James Cope, had aided Karl Marx at the inauguration of the IWA in London in 1864.

Monday, 23 July 1877: railway and Vulcan Iron workers rallied in support of the striking railway workers attacked by federal troops in Pennsylvania. (St. Louis newspapers bannered the reports under the heading: "WAR News"). At the same time another mass rally of workers called on the Mayor to demand that troops not be dispatched to St. Louis, the "City of Little Bread". Tues., 24 July: worker committees visited hundreds of shops, asking workers to strike. Especially active were groups of coopers. 1,500 mechanics and molders organized a marching band protest through the city streets, armed with clubs and staves. A mass night rally followed. Meanwhile, the WMP and trade union leaders had organized a strike Executive Committee, demanding an eight-hour day and the abolition of child labor. Fearful of the mob in the streets, which they could not control, the Marxist and trade unionists also denounced the use of violence. 25 of July (Wed.): railway workers shut down the yards in East St. Louis. Marching through the city, five thousand strong to maintain order in his section. The city mayor and chief of police in St. Louis proper admitted they had no control over the situation. Secretly they began to take orders from a businessmen's vigilante force, the "Committee of Public Safety", overseen by former Confederate and Missouri State Militia officers. The Committee requisitioned funds, supplies and arms, issuing receipts in its own name. That same day (25 July 1877), in London, the German-Jew Karl Marx - on reading trans-Atlantic telegraphic reports from America - hailed the events as the "first explosion against the associated oligarchy of Capital since the Civil War...it will naturally again be suppressed, but can very well form the point of origin of an earnest workers' party...A nice sauce is being stirred over there, and the transfer of the Interna-

with a worker at their head carrying a loaf of bread stuck on a flagpole, the strikers shut virtually every factory and shop. Cannery and stove foundry workers joined, as well as Black river-levee roustabouts. Several bakeries were looted and a dry goods store in the northside slums. The Executive Committee intervened to operate essential services, running trains, distributing bread, and assuring that workers continued to process sugar at a mill facing spoiled supplies, under the guard of a 200 man worker militia. The mayor of East St. Louis (a German refugee from the 1848 Revolution) formed a special police force from strikers tional to the United States may obtain very remarkable post festum opportunities." (Marx had earlier hailed Irish revolts and the American Civil War, in which his followers were active in New York City, St. Louis, etc., as the beginning of the World Revolution.)

With the press shrieking against the "Rule of the Rabble" and comparing it to the recent bloody Paris Commune revolt in France, U.S. President Hayes decided on federal intervention. Six companies of troops were dispatched by train from Indian fighting in the West to St. Louis, via Kansas. They were temporarily halted by railway strikers in Kansas City and in Sedalia, Missouri. 26th of July (Thursday): three companies of infantry and a boxcar of arms entered St. Louis and joined the vigilante Committee of Public Safety. When workers led a mass protest rally in the streets, the frightened Executive Committee of trade unionists and the Marxists of the WMP counseled surrender and disassociated themselves from the mob. 27th of July (Fri.): two more companies of troops arrived with another load of arms. The businessmen's militia attacked a mass rally of workers and then arrested seventy-five leaders of the WMP at their headquarters, who, after a protest attack by enraged workers, had just finished officially denouncing the workers' rally. On the 28th of July (Saturday), federal troops occupied East St. Louis, breaking the strike - although scattered resistance occurred for another week.

The strike had meantime leapfrogged west along the rail and telegraph lines, through Denver and Salt Lake City to San Francisco, California on the Pacific Ocean. It had now become a radical White racist struggle against Chinese scab labor and the White Capitalists importing cheap Chinese coolie slaves.

RADICAL WHITE RACISTS

Chinese in California numbered 100,000 by 1870, brought in by large companies to work on the railroads and in goldmining operations. Working at substandard rates and living in filthy hovels and on garbage for food, the Chinese coolies caused the mass lay-offs of, not only White workers, but also Hispanics. Racial animosity arose as early as the first Gold Rush in the 1850s. (The California-Mexican bandit Joaquin Murrieta specialized in the mass murder of Chinese, along with selective Whites, as would Pancho Villa later in Northern Mexico). A U.S. treaty signed with China in 1868 assured the full right of Chinese to enter the United States. In 1870, White labor demonstrations against Chinese scabs erupted across California. In 1871, Whites in Los Angeles invaded Chinatown, sacked their quarters and killed a score of Chinese. White miners ousted Chinese from the workcamps at French Canal and Nevada City. Several Chinese were lynched. The nation-wide "Slump" struck California in 1873. Whites were mass fired and replaced by Chinese. By 1877, over 16,000 White workers were unemployed in San Francisco alone. Between 1873-1877, capitalists brought in another 70,000 Chinese. The Chinese scabs dominated railroad construction, mining, boot and shoe manufacture, cigar making, and broom fashioning. As a White capitalist said: "All I want is muscle power. I don't care if it's Chinese, White, horse or mule."

July-August 1877: White workers erupted in anti-Chinese riots. In San Francisco, White workers set fire to the Chinese coolie quarters and a lumber yard near the Pacific Mail dock (where Chinese off-landed). Five were killed and scores wounded by revolver shots. An employer's vigilante was shot to death, and one rioter was killed while slashing a fire hose. White rioters then shot two police and injured three with stones. A Chinese criminal gang, The Tong, rioted in Chinatown.

In September 1877, Irishman Dennis Kearney spoke to a mob of White workers across from San Francisco's City Hall. Kearney shouted, "The Chinese Must Go!" and demanded jobs and increased wages for Whites. On 21 September 1877, Kearney and his comrades organized a western branch of the WMP - the Workingmen's Party of California. Their platform demanded the exclusion of all Chinese; fair treatment for Whites; the reform of banking practices; the granting of State-land only to farmers and settlers and not to the railroads and real estate speculators; the break-up of the Central Pacific R.R. and other monopolies and trusts; heavy taxation of large corporations; an eight-hour day; and universal education with an emphasis on vocational training.

problem could be solved by a little "judicious hanging" of "robber-capitalists". The Chinese he described as "leprous, rat-eating Chinese slaves."

A week later, Kearney and five aides were arrested and jailed on charges of incitement to riot. Three weeks later public pressure caused the charges to be dropped and the White men freed. The White workers celebrated in a mass rally on Thanksgiving Day, marching through San Francisco, 10,000 strong.

The 23rd of September 1877, Kearney declared to a crowd that he meant to "wrest government from the hands of the rich and place it in the hands of the people," and to "rid the country of cheap Chinese labor."

On Oct. 29, 1877, a large mob of White workers rallied on Nob Hill, home of the rich in San Francisco. Bonfires were lit across from the mansion of George Crocker, chief of the Oriental and Occidental Steamship Line, which specialized in bringing Chinese to San Francisco. Kearney shouted that the

CALIF. CONVENTION

In January 1878, a California state convention of the Workingmen's Party convened and called for the State Government to hold a State Constitutional Convention and incorporate the Workingmen's Party platform into California's basic laws. A torchlight parade wound through San Francisco. On 10 January 1878, Kearney called for support not only at the "ballot box, but at the bullet box, if necessary." On the 14th of January, Kearney declared that the Chinese must be ousted

"if it takes the life of every White Man in California." In late January at a rally outside City Hall, Kearney threatened to lead his followers to "blow up the Pacific Steamships' steamers and docks" and to invade the Chinese quarters with firearms and "infernal machines" (bombs).

William T. Coleman, a prominent merchant, financed 6,000 vigilantes to halt Kearney until federal forces arrived. The U.S. navy then landed a man-of-war in San Francisco to protect the Government mail docks (as well as the nearby steamship docks for off-loading Chinese slaves purchased from China merchants). Kearney was again arrested and jailed, although quickly released after public outrage. The bought California legislature passed a state law making it a felony to incite or commit acts of violence against persons or property. Back amongst his White fellow workers, Kearney began to use a code language at public rallies. For instance, the term "Serve the Chinamen coffee and doughnuts" meant to attack the Chinese quarters with incendiaries and firearms.

In the 1878 election, the Workingmen's Party elected the mayors of San Francisco, Oakland, and Sacramento, a number of judges, and one-third of the delegates to a State Constitutional Convention. At the State Constitutional Convention, the Workingmen's delegates failed ed to win the economic demands of the White working class, but did succeed in reducing the number of Chinese allowed employment. (The impoverished California wheat-farm Grangers had meantime outlived the grain robberies of Jew wheat-speculator, Isaac Friedland in San Francisco).

Meanwhile in the East, the new "Greenback Party" had been organized by the radical farmer Grangers of the Mid-West, their Independent parties, and the Labor Reformers (the National Labor Union). The "National Greenback Party" ran in the 1878 mid-term State and Congressional elections on a platform of reduced work hours; the abolition of contract alien and convict labor; controlled immigration; banking reform; the issue of government fiat money to eliminate the privileged classes; silver coinage; the sale of public land only to actual settlers; the control of railroad and warehouse rates; the establishment of a government labor bureau; and the reform of the civil service. The National Greenback Party garnered one million votes in State elections, two-thirds of these from the Mid-West. Fourteen U.S. Congressmen were elected, and many state legislators. A strong showing also occurred in the South, with 22% of the vote in Mississippi, 10% in Tennessee, and two members elected to the State Legislature in Georgia. In West Virginia, 18 State legislators were elected. In Arkansas, a fusion with the Republicans seated seven of the latter and seven Greenbackers.

Back in California, a smear campaign by the Capitalist press and the Churches - Protestant and Catholic - accused Kearney of taking a bribe from the Railroads and of being an un-Christian atheist. Kearney was ousted from Chairmanship of the WWP for a brief period, but soon reinstated.

In late 1878, the U.S. Congress passed a bill to exclude Chinese from the United States. President Hayes vetoed the bill. Irishman Kearney denounced Hayes, saying that Andy Jackson's old clothes stuffed with rags would make a better President. Agitation continued. The Knights of Labor - a radical union not only of trades and industrial workers, but also of "popular assemblies of the people" - adopted a tough racist stance in its Western branches, agitating against the "Mongolization" of America and the "Asiatic plague" threatening White "citizen labor". In 1880, White rioters in Denver, Colorado sacked the Chinese quarters, beating and killing Chinese. That year, lame-duck President Hayes negotiated a treaty with China that allowed the United States minor controls over Chinese immigration, but no right to prohibit it (American money-making in China was too important).

In 1882, Congress passed a Chinese Exclusion Act over the veto of new President Chester Arthur (who became Chief Executive after the assassination of President Garfield). The California WWP was torn by faction-fights; Kearney quit in 1881 (going on to become a businessman); the party collapsed in 1882 after Chinese immigration was banned for ten years by the U.S. Government and the naturalization of Chinese prohibited.

But the scab-Chinese already in the U.S. continued to be a serious problem. In 1885, twenty-eight Chinese were killed in Rock Spring, Wyoming, and Whites in Tacoma, Washington burnt down the Chinese quarters. The Chinese Exclusion Act of 1888 was reluctantly accepted by the faltering Chinese government in 1894 for another ten years (renewals continued until 1924, when national quota systems were adopted). But it had not stopped smuggling of Chinese aliens. In 1941, Chinese received quotas and citizenship.

Anti-Chinese agitation also occurred on the West Coast of Canada, led by the Knights of Labor.

Chinese were being shipped into British Columbia as contract slaves to work on the railroads and in the mines. When Chinese intruded into lumbering and port jobs, the White workers of Vancouver exploded. In January 1887, a mob attacked the Chinese workcamp by dark, driving scores of Chinamen over a twenty foot cliff into the bay below. The next day, Chinatown was raided by White workers who tied Chinese together by their pigtails and herded the lots into a steamship bound for the provincial capital of Victoria on Vancouver Island (opposite from Seattle, Washington). Special constables escorted the Chinese back under armed protection. Riots also occurred against Japanese and East Indian Hindus in 1907. The Dominion of Canada finally began to halt open immigration after a boatload of turbaned Sikhs tried to steam ashore in 1914. But, as in the United States, this would not last.

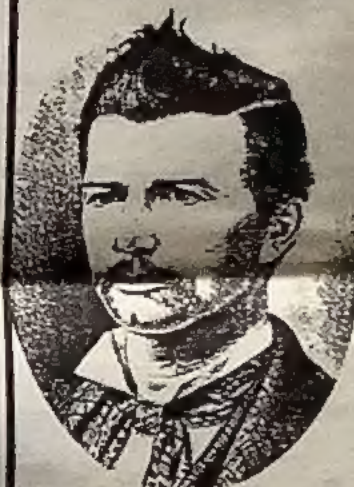

The White struggle ultimately failed because although colored races were temporarily controlled, the White Capitalist race-traitors were still left to run the United States of America. Now, as stated in the basic law of this land, the Declaration of Independence of 1776, it is not only the right but the God-given duty of the White populace to "alter or abolish" the present "Tyrannical" government and to institute "new Guards" for our "future Security" against legal and armed repression, economic exploitation, and the murderous attacks of non-white "Savages".

METZGER SPEAKS:

After a great fratricidal war that pitched brother against brother, our racial fifth column continued to distort our racial state until the late 1800's. On the west coast the banker, and the Big Businessmen were bringing thousands of that ancient Mongol race again to our shores for the quick buck.

DENNIS KEARNEY (1840-1917)

In San Francisco, CA a man of vision by the name of Dennis Kearney told the rich and famous fifth column of his day to cease this trading in flesh that destroyed jobs and the future of White workers. Dennis Kearney formed the Workingmen's Party who fought pitched battles in the streets for your future. Once gaining power they were instrumental in blocking Asian entry for nearly 100 years into our great North America.

The fifth column of our race never asleep if there is a buck to be made. Now our own National and State leaders have become the most dangerous enemy of your race.

were carefully engineered by pro-government spokesman from a command post in the basement of the federal building. Various newspaper reporters, including the notorious anti-American, Herb Brin of a west coast Jew rag, gathered pages of anti-Aryan garbage for publication. White separatists around the country mourn the loss of long time fighter Colonel William P. Gale. On April 28, 1988, Col. Gale died after two years of government harassment.

William Potter Gale rose to rank of colonel during the Pacific struggle in WWII. He fought with the resistance in the Philippines. In later years, Reverend Gale was a successful businessman, political activist, California Gubernatorial candidate and leader of the Ministry of Christ Churches, part of the Christian Identity Movement.

I walked out of the building and a chill came over me at how far our people are going to have to go to change the game.

Predictably, the same Negress pulled her bus to a stop to take yours truly to the big bird with the golden wings. I had a strong feeling come over me that I needed a bath pretty soon to get all that legalese off my White skin.

REV. GALE

WHITE REBEL "Bear Flag"

Throughout the state of California flies the official "Bear Flag". Very few White people realize that it originally was the rebel flag of White separatists battling against the Mexican dictatorship.

Upper California had been claimed for England by Sir Francis Drake in 1579. He called it "New Albion", which means "New England". Despite early exploration and missionary work, the Spanish did not occupy California (from San Diego to San Francisco) until 1769. It was Russian expansion into Alaska that prompted the Spanish move. In 1822, California became part of independent Mexico. The Russians landed in Northern California in 1805, and in 1812 built a fort on Bodega Bay, north of San Francisco, which they held until 1841.

White Americans began to move into Northern California in 1826, with large scale White settlement after 1840. Mexican California was ruled by a reactionary colonial regime and plagued by constant uprisings and coups. Problems developed with the Mexican authorities, for the White settlers felt "racial contempt" for the Mexicans, hated the Mexican legal system (there were no jury trials), and agitated for California to become a new Texas-style republic. The U.S. tried to buy Northern California and

San Francisco Bay in 1835, but Mexico refused. White settlers took part in uprisings in 1836 and 1844. The U.S. Navy briefly occupied Monterey in 1842, and thereafter the U.S. supported secession from Mexico.

In 1845, the U.S. sent Captain John Fremont to survey the mountain passes into California. Mexican cavalry attacked, but were defeated and captured by the U.S. expedition. This prompted the White settlers of Northern California to revolt.

BEAR FLAG

White settlers smashed Mexican forces at Sonoma and occupied the town north of San Francisco Bay. An independent "California Republic" was declared and the "Bear Flag" raised. The banner had a white field with a red star in the upper left, a red horizontal stripe along the bottom and in the center a bear standing on green earth. It bore the inscription "California Republic".

Captain Fremont seized San Juan, then linked with the White settlers. California was declared defacto U.S. territory, with Fremont the Provisional Governor. Meanwhile, U.S. forces from Texas were battling into Mexico. On 7 July 1846, U.S. naval forces occupied Monterey and declared California a part of the United States, with Commodore Sloat as Governor. San Francisco was taken. Another naval force arrived under Commodore Stockton.

A U.S. land force under General Kearney took New Mexico, then with 100 men Kearney invaded Southern California and linked with forces under Stockton and Fremont. Mexican forces were defeated in several battles outside of Los Angeles and near San Diego. More ports were taken. Local Mexicans revolted, but were subdued by January 1847.

White Californian: when you look at the "Bear Flag", even in the courtroom of the enemy, remember that it was the flag of our White rebel ancestors, who had the courage to do what is necessary.

WORM WEAPONS—MONKEY WRENCHING ZOG

Leaders of the international ZOG network are discovering that they have become the victims of a new and deadly weapon.

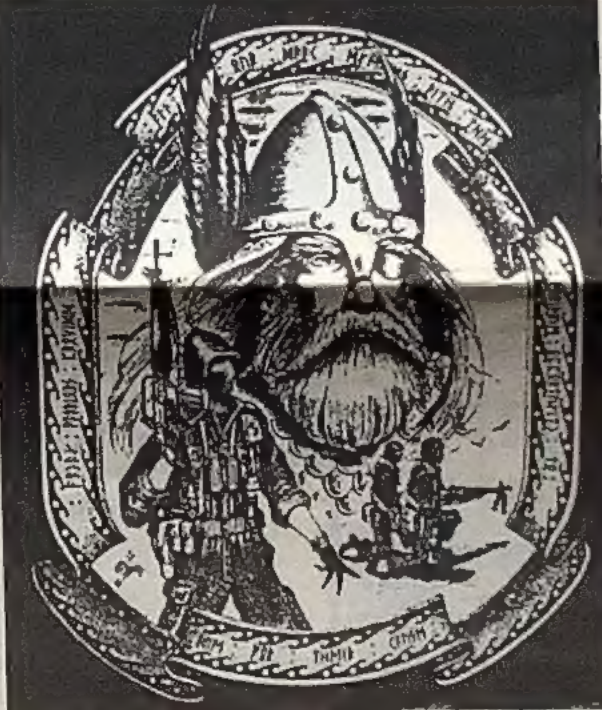

That weapon is the computer "virus" or "worm", many of which are now emerging in the collected computerized data banks of various ZOG states. Formerly such viruses were the result of disgruntled employees who left prankish errors in an employer's database or data system. Recently, however, computer viruses have not only become more sophisticated, but in some cases, have taken on a political intent as well.

One of the most recent occurrences was targeted at the Zionist state itself, that bastion of "democracy", Israel. In the last quarter of 1987, a piece of computer code was repeatedly shared between computer systems. This piece of code, however, had a time-bomb ticking away within. Contained within the program was a line of code which would activate the destruction of important data files when the date of May 13 had been reached.

The destructive meaning of this particular date had significance in relation to the struggle of the Palestinians to overthrow their ZOG masters in Tel Aviv. It seems that May 13, 1948 was the last date that Palestine existed as a separate entity. With the illegal creation of the bandit state of Israel on May 14, 1948, Palestine was banished from the conscience of the world. It seems that some well-educated Palestinians had embedded code throughout the computers of Israel which would have wreaked havoc upon the integrity of ZOG data networks in Israel. Unfortunately, one Yuval Rakavy, a student at Hebrew University, noticed his data files kept growing increasingly longer. Trying to find the source of this problem, he traced it to an error in the ticking time-bomb of the "Free-Palestine" virus.

While the "Free-Palestine" virus was discovered before it could wreak any real havoc, it points the way to an inexpensive but fruitful method to "monkey-wrench" ZOG's "life-as-usual" scenario of lies and deceit.

Generally, these "worm" or "virus" weapons find their way into a computer system because they are embedded in the source code of some valuable or especially useful program. Such a program may perform some necessary computer "house-cleaning" function like reorganizing memory space within the computer. Sometimes they accelerate the time needed to perform a particular function within the system. On personal computers, they are sometimes embedded in some frequently used game. Once in the memory storage area (such as a disk or tape drive) they may rewrite themselves out of their "host" program and wait silently until a certain date or sequence of events occur. Such an occurrence may cause them to begin erasing all data files within reach.

wiping out valuable and needed files of information. Sometimes they merely sneak quietly into data files and begin randomly rewriting the values contained within various files, thus turning them into useless garbage. If such a file contained taxpayer information, vital statistics, or names and locations, it might take thousands and thousands of dollars to rewrite and reorganize the damaged files.
